- 9.3. Any claim by Client on account of breach of the express limited warranty in Section 9.2 above, shall be waived conclusively unless Client gives Company written notice thereof within 30 days of performance of the alleged defective Services by Company. Company shall not be responsible or liable to Client or to any third party for any lost profits, or incidental, consequential, indirect, special or contingent damages for any breach of the limited warranty, Company's liability and Client's exclusive remedy being limited to Company's choice of:
 - a) reperformance of the Services in order to correct any such defect;

It shall be Client's sole duty and liability to monitor Client Information to maintain its accuracy and completeness on its website and to promptly make all corrections, modifications, repairs and replacements which may be required in order to maintain Client Information on its website.
- 9.6. Company makes no representations or warranties and disclaims all liability relating to any third-party services, websites, or software used in connection with the Services.

- 9.8. Should any of Section 9 above be limited or excluded by law of Client's domicile, the invalidity of such terms and conditions shall in no way invalidate any other conditions in this Agreement.

10. Your Representations, Warranties and Covenants.

- 10.1. Client represents and warrants that Client has all necessary rights and authority to enter into the relationship with Company contemplated by Agreement. Client represents, warrants and covenants that any content or materials that Client provides to Company does not and will not:

- a) infringe on any third party's copyright, patent, trademark, trade secret, moral right or other proprietary rights or right of publicity or privacy;
- b) violate any law, statute, ordinance or regulation, including, without limitation, laws and regulations governing export control, false or misleading advertising or unfair competition;
- c) be defamatory or libelous;
- d) be pornographic or obscene; or
- e) contain viruses, trojan horses, worms, time bombs, cancelbots or other similar harmful or deleterious programming routines.

Client further represents, warrants and covenants that the product or service that is being (or will be) promoted through any campaign is lawful and not the subject of any ongoing investigation by any local, state or federal regulatory or quasi-regulatory authorities.

11. Dispute Resolution.

PLEASE READ THIS SECTION CAREFULLY. IT REQUIRES CLIENT TO ARBITRATE DISPUTES WITH COMPANY AND LIMITS CLIENT'S ABILITY TO SEEK RELIEF THROUGH COURT PROCEEDINGS. THIS SECTION 11 OF THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE REFERRED TO AS THE "ARBITRATION AGREEMENT." FOR CLIENTS LOCATED IN AUSTRALIA, THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT APPLIES SUBJECT TO THE COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION ACT 2010 (NSW), AND DOES NOT LIMIT ANY RIGHTS UNDER THE AUSTRALIAN CONSUMER LAW THAT CANNOT LAWFULLY BE EXCLUDED.

11.1. Scope.

- a) Client agrees that any disputes or claims, past, present, or future, arising out of or relating to the Agreement or Services ("Claim(s)") shall be resolved exclusively through binding arbitration, rather than in court, except for the following exceptions:
 - i) Either party may pursue Claims in small claims court in Colorado if the Claims so asserted qualify, so long as the matter remains in such court and advances only on an individual (non-class, non-collective, non-representative) basis.; and
 - ii) Either party may seek equitable relief in court for infringement or other intellectual property misuse (such as, without limitation, trademarks, copyrights, domain names, patents).

If Client is located in Australia, any arbitration will be conducted in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Act 2010 (NSW), and the seat of arbitration shall be Sydney, NSW.

- b) This Arbitration Agreement applies broadly to all legal Claims, including those based on contract, statute, tort, fraud, or misrepresentation, even if they arose before this Agreement or continue after its termination. This Arbitration Agreement shall not be interpreted to exclude or restrict any statutory consumer rights provided under the Australian Consumer Law ("ACL").
- c) This Arbitration Agreement does not prevent Client from reporting issues to government agencies.
- d) BY ACCEPTING THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT, CLIENT ELECTS NOT TO PARTICIPATE IN ANY ONGOING OR FUTURE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST COMPANY THAT ATTEMPT TO ASSERT CLAIMS ON A CLASS-, COLLECTIVE-, OR REPRESENTATIVE-WIDE BASIS.

11.2. Informal Dispute Resolution.

- a) Before arbitration, both parties must attempt to resolve disputes informally. The initiating party must send written notice and participate in a good-faith resolution conference (via phone, video, or in person) within 60 days of notice receipt. Participation in this process is mandatory and tolls any deadlines during this time.

11.3. Arbitration Process.

- a) This Arbitration Agreement evidences a transaction in interstate commerce and is governed by the Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA") in all respects. If for whatever reason the rules and procedures of the FAA cannot apply, the state laws of Colorado governing arbitration agreements shall apply. Before a party may initiate an arbitration proceeding, that party must send notice of an intent to initiate arbitration and certifying completion of the informal dispute resolution conference pursuant to Section 11.2(a) above. Such notice must be signed by hand by Client or a Company representative, and may not be signed electronically. If this notice is being sent to Company, it must be sent to 140 E 19th Ave, #200, Denver, CO 80203, to the attention of Great Dental Websites Legal Department. Company will send any such notice to Client's billing address.
- b) For Clients located in Australia, the arbitration shall be governed by the Commercial Arbitration Act 2010 (NSW).
- c) The arbitration will be conducted by ADR Services, Inc. under its rules and pursuant to the terms of the Agreement. Arbitration demands filed with ADR Services, Inc. must include (a) the name, telephone number, mailing address, and email address of the party seeking arbitration; (b) a statement of the legal claims being asserted and the factual basis of those claims; (c) a description of the remedy sought and an accurate, good-faith calculation of the amount in controversy, enumerated in United States Dollars (any request for injunctive relief or attorneys' fees shall not count toward the calculation of the amount in controversy unless such injunctive relief seeks the payment of money); and (d) the handwritten signature of the party seeking arbitration (electronic signatures are not permitted). Each arbitration demand must also include a signed certification from Client or Client's counsel that (a) Client has complied with the pre-arbitration informal dispute negotiation requirement set forth in Section 11.2(a) above; (b) the arbitration demand is not being presented for any improper purpose, such as to harass, cause unnecessary delay, or needlessly increase the cost of dispute resolution; (c) the claims and other legal contentions are warranted by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument for extending, modifying, or reversing existing law or for establishing new law; and (d) the factual contentions have evidentiary support (or will after reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery). If Client is represented by counsel, Client's counsel may participate in the arbitration, but Client shall also fully participate in the arbitration.
- d) Disputes shall be subject to ADR Services, Inc.'s most current version of its Arbitration Rules, available at www.adrservices.com/services/arbitration-rules or by calling ADR Services, Inc. at 310-201-0010 or by writing to the Company. The fees that shall apply to arbitrations administered by ADR Services, Inc. are set forth on ADR Services, Inc.'s website, available at www.adrservices.com/ratefee-schedule. Specifically, the fees set forth in ADR Services, Inc.'s Mass Employment Arbitration Fee Schedule shall apply when twenty (20) or more arbitration claims are filed which: (a) involve the same or similar parties; (b) are based on the same or similar claims which arise from the same or substantially identical transactions, incidents, or events requiring the determination of the same or substantially identical questions of law or fact; and (c) involve the same or coordinated counsel for the parties. In all other circumstances, the fees set forth in ADR Services, Inc.'s General Fee Schedule shall apply. Payment of all filing, administration, and arbitration fees will be governed by ADR Services, Inc.'s rules. If ADR Services, Inc. is not available to arbitrate, the parties will meet and confer to discuss mutually agreeing to an alternative arbitral forum. If ADR Services, Inc. is not available to conduct arbitration seated in Australia, the parties agree to appoint an arbitrator through the Resolution Institute or ACICA, or as otherwise agreed in writing, in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Act 2010 (NSW). Client may choose to have the arbitration conducted by telephone, video conference, based on written submissions, or (if and only if ADR Services, Inc. is available to do so) in person in Colorado or at another mutually agreed location. For Clients in Australia, arbitration will be seated in Sydney, NSW, unless otherwise agreed. During the arbitration, neither party shall disclose to the arbitrator the amount of any settlement offer made by either party, until after the arbitrator determines the amount, if any, to which Client or Company is entitled.

11.4. Arbitrator Authority.

- a) The arbitrator—not any federal, state or local court or agency—has sole authority to decide disputes about this Arbitration Agreement's validity, enforceability, or scope. The arbitrator is bound by this Arbitration Agreement. All disputes regarding the payment of arbitrator or arbitration-organization fees shall be determined exclusively by an arbitrator. The arbitration will decide the rights and liabilities, if any, of Client and Company. The arbitration proceeding will not be consolidated with any other matters or joined with any other proceedings or parties unless both Client and Company otherwise agree in writing. The arbitrator will have the authority to grant motions dispositive of all or part of any Claim or dispute. The arbitrator will have the authority to award, on an individual basis, monetary damages and to grant any non-monetary remedy or relief available to an individual under applicable law, the arbitral forum's rules, and the Agreement (including this Arbitration Agreement). The arbitrator will issue a written statement of decision describing the essential findings and conclusions on which any award (or decision not to render an award) is based, including the calculation of any damages awarded. The award shall be binding only among the parties and shall have no preclusive effect in any other arbitration or other proceeding involving a different party. The arbitrator shall follow the applicable law. The arbitrator has the same authority to award relief on an individual basis that a judge in a court of law would have. The arbitrator's decision is final and binding on Client and Company. In arbitrations seated in Australia, the arbitrator must apply the law of New South Wales and relevant federal Australian law, including consumer protections under the ACL.
- b) If the arbitrator finds that either the substance of Client's Claim or the relief sought in Client's Claim is frivolous or brought for an improper purpose (as measured by the standards set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(b)), then payment of all fees related to the arbitration shall be governed by the applicable arbitration rules. In such case, Client agrees to reimburse the Company for all monies previously disbursed by it that are otherwise Client's obligation to pay under the applicable arbitration rules. The arbitrator may award declaratory or injunctive relief only in favor of the individual party seeking relief and only to the extent necessary to provide relief warranted by that party's individual Claim.

- 11.5. Waiver of Jury Trial.
- a) Client and Company waive all rights to sue in court and receive a judge or jury trial. Client and Company are instead electing to have Claims and disputes resolved by arbitration, except as specified in Section 11.1(a) above. There is no judge or jury in arbitration, and court review of an arbitration award is limited.
 - b) This provision does not apply in Australia, where civil claims are determined by a judge without a jury.
- 11.6. Waiver of Class, Collective, Consolidated, or Representative Actions.
- a) CLIENT AND COMPANY EXPRESSLY AGREE TO WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO RESOLVE CLAIMS WITHIN THE SCOPE OF THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT ON A CLASS, COLLECTIVE, OR REPRESENTATIVE BASIS. ALL CLAIMS AND DISPUTES WITHIN THE SCOPE OF THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT MUST BE ARBITRATED ON AN INDIVIDUAL BASIS AND NOT ON A CLASS, COLLECTIVE, OR REPRESENTATIVE BASIS. CLAIMS OF MORE THAN ONE CUSTOMER CANNOT BE ARBITRATED OR LITIGATED JOINTLY OR CONSOLIDATED WITH THOSE OF ANY OTHER CUSTOMER. If, however, this waiver of class, collective, consolidated, or representative actions is deemed invalid or unenforceable with respect to a particular Claim or dispute, neither Client nor Company is entitled to arbitration of such Claim or dispute. Instead, all such Claims and disputes will then be resolved by a court in the United States District Court for the District of Colorado. This provision does not prevent Client from participating in a class-wide settlement of claims.
 - b) This class action waiver does not apply where such a waiver would be unenforceable under applicable Australian law. If the waiver is found to be invalid in an Australian context, such Claims shall be resolved by a court of competent jurisdiction in New South Wales.
- 11.7. Survival.
- a) This Arbitration Agreement shall survive termination of the Agreement and Client's relationship with Company.
- 11.8. Changes.
- a) If Company modifies this Arbitration Agreement in the future, the change will not apply to any Claim with which Client has already submitted written notice.
- 11.9. One-Year Limitation.
- a) Client must bring any Claim related to the Services or this Agreement within 1 year, or it will be permanently barred.
 - b) For Clients in Australia, this limitation period shall not apply to Claims where a longer period is required by applicable law, including statutory warranties under the ACL.

12. General

- 12.1. Governing Law.

- a) The Agreement is made in the State of Colorado. Agreement will be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Colorado without giving effect to conflict of laws principles. For Clients located in Australia, this Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of New South Wales, Australia. Nothing in this Agreement excludes, restricts, or modifies any rights or remedies that are available under the ACL and cannot be lawfully excluded.
- 12.2. Communication and Notices.
 - a) Client agrees that by entering into the Agreement and providing Company with Client's wireless phone number, telephone number, and/or email address, Company or its agents may contact Client for: (a) any Service-related issues by calling or texting Client at such number(s) using a prerecorded/artificial voice or text message delivered by an automatic telephone dialing system and/or using a call made by live individuals, and/or (b) for any service-related issues or for marketing purposes by sending an email to such email address. The consent provided here continues even if Client's Service terminates. If Client does not wish to receive marketing emails, Client may follow the opt-out instructions contained in any such email by making an opt-out request.
 - b) Company will communicate with Client by email, SMS or by posting notices on Company's sites and services. Client agrees that all agreements, notices, disclosures and other communications that Company provides to Client electronically satisfy any legal requirement that such communications be in writing.
- 12.3. Severability.
 - a) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remaining provisions will continue in full force without being impaired or invalidated in any way.
- 12.4. Assignment.
 - a) Client may not assign the Agreement without the prior written consent of Company. The parties' rights and obligations will bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors, heirs, executors, joint administrators and permitted assigns.
- 12.5. Force Majeure.
 - a) Neither party shall have any liability for any failure or delay (other than with respect to payment obligations) resulting from any governmental action, fire, flood, insurrection, earthquake, power failure, riot, explosion, embargo, strikes whether legal or illegal, labor or inventory shortage, unavailability of currency, transportation interruption of any kind, work slowdown or any other condition affecting production or delivery in any manner beyond the reasonable control of such party.
